

The October walk was led by Chris Timmins, another new walk leader, who braved the north coast and St Pirans on a day that was not as windy as expected.

